Admissions Information and Special Requirements For Transfer Students

College	Admission Options	Transcripts	Standardized Tests	Special Requirements
Agriculture and Life Sciences	Fall and spring Landscape architecture: fall only	• High school and college • Required Midterm Report • Submit results of any external exams such as AP, IB, or A Levels	SAT and ACT not required International students: TOEFL or IELTS (Cornell's institutional TOEFL code is 2098; the departmental code is 00)	Prerequisite courses required for each major; portfolio required for landscape architecture; no interviews offered; visits encouraged well before application deadline; for more information: cals.cornell.edu/transfer.cfm.
Architecture, Art, and Planning	Fall and spring Five-year architecture: fall only, unless you have completed two years in an accredited architecture program	• High school and college • Required Midterm Report • Submit results of any external exams such as AP, IB, or A Levels	SAT or ACT if taken previously International students: TOEFL or IELTS (Cornell's institutional TOEFL code is 2098; the departmental code is 00)	Five-year architecture: an interview and a file portfolio that meets department specifications Fine arts: a CD portfolio that meets department specifications; interview recommended History of architecture: two years of undergraduate study; a two-semester history of architecture survey course.
Arts and Sciences	Fall and spring	• High school and college • Required Midterm Report • Submit results of any external exams such as AP, IB, or A Levels	SAT or ACT if taken previously International students: TOEFL or IELTS (Cornell's institutional TOEFL code is 2098; the departmental code is 00)	Students entering as juniors must complete any prerequisites for their major field; for prerequisites, consult the departmental websites and Cornell's Courses of Study for details; no interviews offered; visits encouraged.
Engineering	Fall only	• High school and college • Required Midterm Report • Submit results of any external exams such as AP, IB, or A Levels	SAT or ACT, and SAT Subject Tests if taken previously International students: TOEFL or IELTS (Cornell's institutional TOEFL code is 2098; the departmental code is 00)	Students must complete any prerequisites for their major; applicants must submit complete course descriptions and/or syllabi for consideration; no interviews offered; visits encouraged; for details on prerequisites and course description submission, see www.engineering.cornell.edu/transfer.
Hotel Administration	Fall and spring	• High school and college • Required Midterm Report • Submit results of any external exams such as AP, IB, or A Levels	SAT, ACT, and SAT Subject Tests can be submitted, but are not required International students: TOEFL or IELTS (Cornell's institutional TOEFL code is 2098; the departmental code is 00)	Interview required, on or off campus. You must schedule your interview online by the corresponding fall or spring transfer application deadlines. Details at hotelschool.cornell.edu/admissions/ugrad/interview. For details regarding recommended courses, see hotelschool.cornell.edu/admissions/ugrad/transfer.html.
Human Ecology	Fall and spring	• High school and college • Required Midterm Report • Submit results of any external exams such as AP, IB, or A Levels	SAT, ACT, and SAT Subject Tests can be submitted, but are not required International students: TOEFL or IELTS (Cornell's institutional TOEFL code is 2098; the departmental code is 00)	Prerequisite courses for each major can be found at www.human.cornell.edu/admissions/transfers; no interviews offered; appointment with an admission counselor prior to applying is strongly recommended. Design students: a portfolio and design index are required for apparel design, fashion design management, and interior design options.
Industrial and Labor Relations	Fall and spring	• High school and college • Required Midterm Report • Submit results of any external exams such as AP, IB, or A Levels	SAT and ACT not required International students: TOEFL or IELTS (Cornell's institutional TOEFL code is 2098; the departmental code is 00)	Prerequisite coursework in writing, micro and macro economics, and math. Phone interview required.